

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, 1983 marks the Tenth Anniversary of the OPEC oil embargo which precipitated unprecedented inflation, a major recession and national vulnerability in energy supply; and,

WHEREAS, The decade gave rise to dramatic advances by individuals, industry and government in conservation and improved energy efficiency; expanded exploration for domestic reserves of oil and natural gas; a greater utilization of coal and nuclear energy; and an accelerated development of renewable resources and synthetic fuels; and,

WHEREAS, The momentum for change must be sustained to maintain and expand conservation and all indigenous energy resources and technologies to consolidate the advances of the last decade and assure a diversified and practical base of energy resources for the future; and,

WHEREAS, Realization of any long-term gains depends to a great extent on the awareness of individuals and industry of the social, economic and security benefits resulting from conservation; a balanced, timely development of all our resources; and the scientific and technological advances that have been the hallmark of American industry; and,

THEREFORE, Be it recognized that American Energy Awareness Week is dedicated to stimulating the development of America's resources and technologies and energy conservation for a more secure and stable future for our nation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 23-29, 1983, as

AMERICAN ENERGY AWARENESS WEEK

In South Dakota, and call upon the leadership of government, business and labor, public officials, consumer groups and educators, civic organizations and other associations to observe the week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

ATTEST:

Alice Kundert
ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Nineteenth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three
